Recognized as the "universal antioxidant" because it's soluble in both water and fat, Carlson Alpha Lipoic Acid 300 mg is a powerful, vitamin-like compound that's used in every system of our bodies. Alpha Lipoic Acid promotes healthy energy production, supports healthy liver and nerve function, and helps maintain overall good health. It also works well with other nutrients, such as glutathione and vitamins C and E by extending their biochemical life and helping to defend against free radicals.

This product is tested by an independent, FDA-registered laboratory for freshness, potency, and purity.
